

Climate Social Science Network COP 26 Expert List

Scholars from the Climate Social Science Network -- an international network of social science scholars focused on understanding the cultural and institutional dynamics of the political conflict over climate change -- are attending COP 26 and Glasgow and are available for media interviews.

EXPERTS IN GLASGOW:

Name	Affiliation	Dates attending	Best way to be reached during COP	Topic of expertise in relation to COP26
Timmons Roberts	Brown University, Climate Social Science Network	Nov 7-13	whatsapp or text +1 401-441-2103; timmons@brown.edu	Climate finance/ $100b/yr pledge, Obstruction of climate action, US state-level, CSSN
Jen Allan	Cardiff University	Oct 31- Nov 14	whatsapp +44 7564108433	Negotiation process; history of UNFCCC, Paris Agreement
Saleem Huq	Independent University Bangladesh	full two weeks	saleemul.huq@icccad.org	Loss and Damage and climate finance
Simon Lewis	University College London	full two weeks	s.l.lewis@ucl.ac.uk	Forests, nature-based solutions
Peter Newell	University of Sussex	4-9th November	P.J.Newell@sussex.ac.uk	Fossil fuels, energy transitions, activism
Marianna Poberezhskaya	Nottingham Trent University	Oct 31- Nov 5	marianna.poberezhskaya@ntu.ac.uk	Russia, Kazakhstan - climate policies, climate discourse
Doreen Stabinsky	College of the Atlantic	Oct 24-Nov 14	whatsapp +12075188330	Loss and damage, net zero, carbon markets, nature-based solutions

EXPERTS AVAILABLE REMOTELY (continues on page 2):

Name	Affiliation	Best way to be reached during COP	Topic of expertise in relation to COP26
Harro van Asselt	University of Eastern Finland	harro.vanasselt@uef.fi	Fossil fuels, trade and climate (incl. CBAM), transparency, global stocktake, legal issueF

Joshua Basseches	University of Michigan	jbasdech@umich.edu	Climate and energy policy (U.S., with focus on states), electricity policy (Canada, Mexico, United States)
Christian Downie	Australian National University	christian.downie@anu.edu.au	public finance for coal, fossil fuel lobbying, negotiation history, Australian position
Hans-Josef Fell	Energy Watch Group	fell@hans-josef-fell.de,	100% renewable energy, energy transition, energy markets, fossil fuel phaseout
Jessica Green	University of Toronto	jf.green@utoronto.ca, +1 647-384-7981	Carbon markets, offsets, net zero, Marrakech Partnership, fossil fuels
Prakash Kashwan	University of Connecticut	WhatsApp +1-860-786-0011; prakash.kashwan@uconn.edu	International Offsets; Emissions Trade; Geoengineering; Nature-based solutions; Climate Justice; India.
Pam McElwee	Rutgers U	pamela.mcelwee@rutgers.edu	Offsets, net zero pledges, nature based solutions, IPCC reports, vulnerability, climate finance, Southeast Asia
Ruth McKie	De Montfort University	ruth.mckie@dmu.ac.uk	Obstruction across countries, misinformation, media
Duncan McLaren	Lancaster University	d.mclaren@lancaster.ac.uk / +447394306068	Net zero, carbon removal, climate justice, politics of procrastination, geoengineering
Maria Ojala	Örebro University, Sweden	maria.ojala@oru.se	Young people, climate change engagement/disengagement, climate worry, coping with climate change
Christopher Round	George Mason University	cround@masonlive.gmu.edu; +1-978-654-8310	Carbon offsets and emissions trading, nature-based solutions, climate justice, technology in climate policy, American climate politics
Jennie Stephens	Northeastern University	1 617 784-0295 j.stephens@northeastern.edu	Climate justice, transformative action; energy democracy; climate resilience; antiracist, feminist leadership on climate & energy, the polluter elite; social innovation (beyond technical innovation), the dangers of technological fixes (i.e. solar geoengineering)
Romain Weikmans	Finnish Institute of International Affairs	romain.weikmans@fiia.fi	Climate finance; US$100 billion mobilization goal; Transparency
Jeremy Walker	University of Technology Sydney	jeremy.walker@uts.edu.au	Australia climate policy